

ANGEL OF HOPE

The Angel of Hope was first introduced in The Christmas Box, a worldwide bestseller by author Richard Paul Evans. In the story, a woman mourns the death of her little girl by making regular visits to the child's grave, marked by an angel statue.

The Agnesian HealthCare Foundation presents The Christmas Box Angel of Hope™ Memorial and Healing Garden, which is located on the Agnesian HealthCare grounds. These special gardens offer a place for families to find peace and comfort as they heal after the loss of a child.

Dedicated in 2005, this healing garden project was launched with a generous start-up gift from the Eloise R. Atkinson Foundation.
